Manuscript Acceptance Letter

Dear Author(s); Karez Namiq Kakarash and Vian Afan Naqshbandi.

We are pleased to inform you that our editorial board has accepted and approved your manuscript entitled:

"Effectiveness of McKenzie Extension Exercises in Reducing Radiated Low Back Pain: A Quasi-Experimental Comparative Trial"

after successfully passing the review process and revisions made by the authors. All the accepted manuscripts in this journal will go under advanced English editing by our native editors. The authors will also receive the galley proof of the final revision after all the quality control checks and prior to publishing the article.

* The Manuscript will published in the Volume 12, Issue 1, on January of 2024.

Best Regards,

Thank you for choosing to publish in our journal.
