BBC World Questions: Wednesday, 8 March 2023, 6.00pm at Erbil Rotana Hotel, Gulan Street, Erbil, Iraqi Kurdistan, 44001 Erbil

The BBC and the British Council are looking forward to welcoming you to the recording of the Iraq edition of the BBC World Service radio programme, World Questions.

We'll be asking the audience and our panel to tell the world about the future they want for the country. All debate points raised by questions from the audience.

Our Panel

- Dhiaa Al Asadi, Former Minister and Former Head of the Sadrist Parliamentary Bloc Al Ahrar
- Tara Burhan Shwani, Senior Associate at International Republican Institute
- Suadad Al Salhy, Senior Reporter for Middle East Eye
- Saad Al Muttalibi, Member of Baghdad City Government and former Aide to Nouri Al Mal.

Registration and reception at 6.00pm. Please be on time to be sure of a seat.

All audience members should attend registration and the reception in order to attend the debate.

Please leave large bags at home. To ensure everyone's safety there will be a security check at the venue. Please bring some photo ID.

There is secure parking at the front of the hotel and in a larger car park opposite where people can park themselves or wait for valet parking. Drivers may want to come early to avoid any queues.
